THE
LA ALVERNA

PRESENTED BY
THE SENIOR CLASS
OF SAINT FRANCIS ACADEMY
IN
NEVADA, MISSOURI

Dedication

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace! Where there is hatred let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy; O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; To be understood, as to understand; To be loved, as to love for it is in giving, that we receive; It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned; It is in dying, that we are born to eternal life.

Saint Francis Assisi

With this prayer, we the Seniors of 1958 humbly dedicate this La Alverna to the Sanctification of Youth for which Saint Francis Academy in the spirit of its patron strives by example, prayer and good works, to instill in its students a true devotion to God and his celestial subjects.

A part of every HEART

SENIOR CLASS PHOPHECY

Having completed my great opera play "Madame Butterfly", I toured some of the larger cities across the nation. My first stop was in New York, where I visited a few of the department stores. As I was looking through the lingerie, I encountered Mary Margaret Goth, saleslady for Playtex. Her exquisite talent for bargaining and talking herself out of a tight squeeze is very useful, for she can talk a lady into one.

My next stop was in Washington D.C., and I toured the Presidential Grounds. In the play ground in the back I noted the familiar face of Connie Rooney, governess and teacher of the President's children. She is also a journalist for the Ladies Home Journal.

In a museum in Denver, Colorado, I was attracted by a sign which said, "The Doeverything", invented by Mary Jane Schwaller. At the side was literature explaining it. This machine, it said, washes, irons, scrubs, gets meals, washes dishes, gets the children off to school, tends the furnace, and does the marketing. It has attachments which hoe the garden, mow the lawn, and an arm which reaches out to spank little Stan when he drags the cat around by the tail. The present Mrs. R. Musial intends to spend the remainder of her life reading all the new novels.

In Kansas City I find Mary Louise Cannady employed by the Kansas City Times. She is a reporter and is known as "Speedy Sophie". She carries two things in her pockets, a book entitled "Clues" and a pair of handcuffs. Her intense interest in everybody's business and her cast-iron nerves enable her to penetrate where she is not wanted without embarrassment. She is so alert that she interviews criminals as they are committing the crime and gets tomorrow's news last week. Also, employed in the city is Ellen Lynn, a nurse in St. Mary's Hospital. Her recurrent dream in which she is a canary bird chased by a cat, cheers all the patients extremely. She spends five hours a day in each of her two Candy Stores, one in New York and one in London. She travels back and forth at night. Busy lady, Ellen is!

Later, while waiting for a medical check-up in the Professional Building, I read that Ruth Kantner has won a national bread-baking contest. She is the happy wife of a prominent business man and serves the best meals in town. In addition to that, she is a lecturer on home-making, the kind who tells people how to feed ten people for seven days on twenty-three cents apiece.

Now, as my turn to see Dr. Marjorie Schuster has arrived, I drop the magazine. I see Marjorie has grown somewhat older but is still young at heart. Dr. Schuster is yet single but she tells me she has many suitors, but she can't make up her mind whether to marry the African Lion Hunter or the garbage truck driver.

Next I go to Jefferson City to see my sister. She tells me of the recent election in which Eileen Tilling ran for Governess of the state, but lost by one vote which was cast by her campaign manager. Previously she had been a senator of the state but has resumed her former profession as a lawyer.

Now I go back to my own home town and find Georgia Bax and Mary Jane Camden partners in the Camden-Bax Real Estate. They are selling Florida lots to the inhabitants of Labrador and igloos to the dwellers of the Sahara. In their leisure time Miss Bax writes speeches for politicians and Mary Jane helps her husband in managing "Jane's Cat Farm". A public auction is held here every Saturday afternoon. Some of the cats bring up to $5,000.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1958, hereby asserting that we are of sound minds, and extremely sound bodies, proclaim our Last Will and Testament.

We, the Senior Class will our iron which we bought as Freshman, to the Freshman Class of 1958-59.

We, the Senior Class, leave our very unusual and broadened vocabulary to the Sophomore Class of next year. Remember, to achieve the same take English four years.

We, the Senior Class will to the Juniors of next year, our technique to type without errors, and our Shorthand Speed of 180 words per minute.

We, the Senior Class bequeath our quiet and dignified ways to the Senior Class of '59.

I, Connie Rooney, will to my capper Carol Schwaller my long hair, to Carolyn Lewellyn, my wished for second year Latin book, and to Connie Brown my seat in Father John's class.

I, Georgia Bax, will my rosy cheeks to Jackie Topper, my temper to Alice Berendzen, and my place in the Senior Dorm to my sister Lorraine.

I, Mary Jane Schwaller, will my golden blonde hair to one of my Mary's Home friends, Carol, Schulte, my ability to win a homemaking award to Christine Green, and my place in Chemistry to Patricia Diebold.

I, Eileen Tilling, will my librarianship to Jo Anne Goddard, my ability to argue logically to Isabel Esquivel and Kathy Logan, and my likeness for History to Mary Beth Kanute.

I, Mary Louise Cannady, will my long hair to Ann Bute, my slender shape to Janice Haug, and my quiet manner to talkative Eunice Lang.

I, Ellen Lynn, will my disposition to Vera Esquivel, my dancing to Ruth Karleskint, and my size and shape to Judy Berendzen.

I, Ruth Kantner, will my well kept school locker to Mary Willibrand, my gentleman friends to Mary Alice Boehler, and my speediness to Leah Topper.

I, Barbara Bruce, will my ability to flub up music lessons to Darlene Melling, my talkativeness to Janice Bergschneider, and my soprano voice to Marilyn Roth.

I, Marjorie Schuster, will my place on the Katy to Dorothy Ellebracht, who will be needing it the next three years, my Stradivarius ability to play the violin to Ellen Morgan, and my unusual ability to manage a successful volley ball team to Nina Gastel. May she have better luck than I did.

I, Mary Jane Camden, will my "caty" disposition to Ardella Bergschneider, my ability to grow long fingernails to Elaine Bergschneider, and my natural curly hair to Kathy Vogel.

I, Mary Margaret Goth, will my cute smile to Bonnie Smith, my so called "Japanese eyes" to Jane Stander, and my work, taking care of Jerry and the fish to Kathy Kalwei.

Class Song

We'll be the grads of
One nine six o (1960).
That is, if we
Keep on the go.

Now Mom sent me here
To act like a lady;
But when I came,
I cried like a baby.

We've got the talent,
We've got the brains
To hit the tracks,
Like choo-choo trains.

We're always willing
To do our best,
If we could only
Get some rest.

Now if we study,
We'll get through school;
That is, if we
Don't break a rule.

Although we may
Not be great,
Come on Classmates,
"Let's Graduate."

CLASS SONG

Oh, we love THE HALLS OF IVY that surround us here today,
And we will not forget tho' we be far, far away,
To the hallow'd HALLS OF IVY ev'ry voice will bid farewell,
And shimmer off in twilight like the old vesper bell.
One day a hush will fall, The footsteps of us all
Will echo down the hall and disappear,
But as we sadly start our journeys far apart,
Apart of ev'ry heart will linger here
In the sacred HALLS OF IVY
Where we've lived and learned to know,
That thro' the years we'll see you in the sweet after glow.
